case study - current estate

We received a phone call about an antique barn in upper CT packed with thousands of antiques that had not been seen for 50 years. Untouched and unidentified, they were covered in dirt and bat droppings. The children of this estate wanted everything to be picked up, cleaned, identified, researched, photographed, cataloged and sold using TAG, classified, online, eBay and LIVE auctions. Three 26-foot trucks later, we are still holding events to disperse this estate. It started in December 2008 and will end in October 2009 with a total of 10 to 15 separate events for one estate!

We are the “Sotheby’s” of $100 thousand to $2 million estates and collections. From $25 tea cups to $100,000 paintings - we maximize your estate or collection. We travel the world in unmarked trucks to ensure privacy for our clients, helping them to receive top dollar with our custom designed, worldwide-reaching internet programs. Over $2 million dollars has been spent in developing our software and making sure that our events are attended by the right collectors, dealers, and buyers from all over the world.

FULL TURNKEY HYBRID EVENT PLANNING

Easily overlooked ...

Would you have guessed that this item was pre-Civil War and worth over $1,000? Small items sometimes get overlooked in large estates. We make sure each piece in a collection is carefully researched and keyword-targeted to find the collector who wants it.

All auctioneers were told to leave eBay's 160,000,000 bidders in Dec 2008. We developed new software that allows us to stay and access these bidders while still holding a live auction. This makes us the only auctioneer back on eBay. Our events access absentee bids from Craigslist, AuctionZip, EstateSales.net, TagSellit, Facebook, youtube.com and Estate Road Show, TAG sale bids from weekend buy-it-now events, online bids from eBay (including snipes) and LIVE bids from our floor bidders in our gallery in the Charleston, S.C. area, one of the healthiest antique tourist spots in the U.S. We even promote and advertise overseas in over 70 countries, with 20% of our bids coming from outside U.S. borders.

What makes us unique is our 30+ years of experience with technology, our internet reach, our investment into a 30 person research staff located worldwide, and our abilities to handle large quantities of items in a cataloged hybrid format.

Call us - we will arrive confidentially in unmarked trucks, evaluate your estate or collection, and set up a game plan as to how you can obtain top dollar. Our business is up 300% on traffic from 2008; we have sold over 200,000 items!
